The works of our convention will be conducted in accordance with the customary agenda for the participation of delegates from all the national and local boxing federations affiliated to the WBC.

Since this convention will deal with an important number of matters for the benefit of boxing in your country, as well as in the world, your attendance is very important.

The WBC conventions have become the world gathering of the boxing family where great friends and their families share a fraternal environment full of laughter, joy, good faith, friendship and unity for the good of the sport we love so much.

We will see you in the beautiful Bangkok and in the meantime, please accept my cordial regards.

Mauricio Sulaiman
WBC President
